

Prophetic dictation from April 26, 2020

Before the actual word was shared, there were a few references which are also pertinent to the present situation in the form of a dictation.

You will see that what is happening around the globe currently is a complete reset. It is the shift you have prayed for; it is the change you have prayed for. It feels different, it is controlled by the enemy, it looks different from what you have hoped and prayed for.

Listen: It will take a few months and then Germany will be totally different from now. It will not be as dark as you fear but it will also not be as free as the Germany you have known. I will send enormous questioning, a vast hunger among the people. Many people, not knowing any differently, will turn to the churches, but numerous people will soon realise that they will not find any true answers there.

War means destroying the power, constitution, resources, information systems, the strength and the logistics of the opponent. This is exactly what I will do with the army which I have put by your side. Destroy the system of fear, destroy the system of hopelessness, destroy the system of political manipulation. The things politicians do have an effect in the natural realm even if they are working with the help of supernatural powers. But this is what you can do: be full of strength and full of devastating power.

Listen: Your prayers against Pergamon were effective. "Our weapons are mighty to the pulling down of strongholds, for destruction." You must understand that the weapons you have been given are weapons of destruction. Your word, your order, your command is of utmost importance in the spiritual realm. The power of Pergamon has been reduced to almost nothing. The power of the blanket of darkness over the nation is breaking down. I am telling you, the dam has cracked and it is true. The dam is being completely broken down and the answers to prayer are on their way to you and countless others in the spiritual dimension like a massive wall of water to those who will build and realise My Kingdom.

A Word to The People of God in Germany

Often, my prophets were inconspicuous men and women. They were people the world would normally have overlooked, but I called and installed them, and they rose up to proclaim My Word. And this is what I would like you to do as well. I want you to pass on the following word to My people in Germany:

Listen, you sons and daughters of God in Germany. Listen to what the One Who sits on the throne has to say to you. Do not disregard this word even if you think that you can ignore it because it sounds unrealistic according to your present perception, or even exaggerated, or reminds you of wishful thinking.

Rest assured that I, the Lord of lords and the King of kings am willing and will do what I have promised. My prophets have declared to you that there will be great changes, that there will be a gigantic, dramatic and unstoppable wave of change that will befall Europe. It has been called a wave of awakening, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, onward marching armies of angels, invasion of heaven, the caving in of the cloud of darkness over the nation and over Europe. Prophets have seen it as a tsunami, as a dam that will break down, as a bright rising dawn. They saw it as a marching on of enormous armies of angels in the spiritual realm.

Listen My people in Germany and surrounding nations! The shaking which has just started will continue. I, the Lord God have said that all things which are not grounded firmly, will be shaken. Churches will be shaken, ministries will be shaken, cities will be shaken, companies will be shaken, all kinds of social systems will be shaken, the political system will be shaken. There will be shockwave after shockwave over this nation and over the whole continent. Many things which stand proudly now, raising their voices, will completely fall down. People who are greatly recognised now and think they can order the people what to do and not to do will be taken away suddenly. There will be waves of revelation, discovery and light over all social systems. Things which are well hidden now, so no man can find them, will be discussed openly.

There will be changes in a way you can't even imagine. Media will be a tool in My hand. Well-established systems which presently seem unchangeable, like proud bastions, like strongholds, will suddenly be taken away and things that seem impossible today will be possible tomorrow. Media will be falling over themselves to bring things to light. I will call people to preach the truth – in the media, politics, economics and in every sector in this country. I will take away the agents of the enemy suddenly and install people whom I have prepared for a long time in these positions. They have been positioned by me for this time.

Even if the things happening now are initiated by the enemy, I will use them. I will use it and this nation and all of Europe will experience a phase which no futurologist could have ever imagined. It is the phase which prophets have foretold. It is a phase where I will pour out My Spirit. It is a phase where things that have been impossible for many years and decades will happen suddenly. Signs, healings, miracles, mighty exploits of power. It will be a time where there will be great respect and reverence in all social sectors for the things I will do. It is a time where the workings of God will be the main topic of discussion in every street, every residential block, every village. Do you think that this is too much for Me? Do you think that is this unrealistic? Through my servant Martin I have told you: The whole world will see how Germany will bow their knees before Jesus Christ. Does this seem impossible? Your living circumstances for the next months also look impossible. Even half a year ago, nobody could have predicted this, except prophets who were ridiculed and disregarded. They predicted change where there was no change in sight. They predicted spiritual shockwaves where it did not look like shaking. Even some secular people were more sensitive to the changes that are coming than a large portion of My people.

Listen to me, sons and daughters of God: Your life will change. Either you will be part of the Army of God and run along with God's purposes, to which I invite you all. Or you will continue on the way you always have, and I will protect you, as I protect the old wineskins from the new wine. Understand this correctly! The old wineskins are not evil or wrong, they are just old in the spirit. If I would pour the new things I want to do into them, my workings would die in these old wineskins, and so would those wineskins. That's why I will not do it. I will use new wineskins for the new things I want to implement.

But if you read or hear this word, you have to make a personal decision: Where do you want to stand? Do you want to be part of this unimagined move of God in Europe in the coming years? If this is what you want, if you rededicate your life to Me, if you join in, if you give yourself into that which I will do, your life will change dramatically. It will be challenging, evens threatening at times, but it will be full of glory, as in the days of the early church.

There will be a point in time where all people will be delivered, all people will be healed which are present at any meeting. There will be events where all those present will be filled with the Holy Spirit. There will be events which I will completely take over by My Spirit and which will be exclusively under God's leadership, My leadership, My guidance. There will be events where non-Christians will be afraid to enter because they are shaken by the perceptible presence, glory and holiness of God. The acts of the apostles will be surpassed by far.

Hence, I am calling My people:

Be ready! Be available for Me! Be prepared to enter into something completely new and to leave behind tried and proven things of the past! Be prepared to be used in the supernatural! Be prepared to pay the price!

I will send a hunger and desire for the things of God to this nation and the surrounding nations, and this will be extremely challenging for you. People will come – many people. They want your accountability, your teaching, they want to experience God's powerful exploits through you. They want you to lead them into the way of the Spirit. Are you ready for this? Are you prepared for it? Life will change dramatically.

My people – a glory which will frighten the kingdom of darkness.
My people, are you ready?
The greatest hour is right before you.
